Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 17, 2016, American Superconductor Corporation (the “Company”) received notification that the Hainan Higher People’s Court dismissed the civil action captioned (2014) Hainan Yi Zhong Zhi Min Chu Zi No. 2 for software copyright infringement filed by the Company’s wholly-owned Chinese subsidiary, Suzhou AMSC Superconductor Co., Ltd. (“AMSC China”) against Sinovel Wind Group Co. Ltd., a company registered in China (“Sinovel”) and a former licensee of wind turbine technology from the Company’s wholly-owned Austrian subsidiary, AMSC Austria GmbH, and Dalian Guotong Electric Co. Ltd., a supplier of power converter products to Sinovel (“Guotong”), for what it cited was a lack of evidence.

In this civil action, AMSC China is seeking a cease and desist order with respect to the unauthorized use of its software, monetary damages of RMB 1.2 million (approximately $0.2 million) for its economic losses and reimbursement of all costs and reasonable expenses.

The Company expects to file an appeal of the Hainan Higher People’s Court’s decision with China’s Supreme People’s Court. China’s Supreme People’s Court has discretion to decide whether to hear the appeal.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this report that are not strictly historical in nature constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the Company’s expectation regarding the filing of an appeal of the Hainan Higher People’s Court’s decision with China’s Supreme People’s Court. Such forward-looking statements represent management’s current expectations and are inherently uncertain. Actual results may differ materially from what management currently expects because of many risks and uncertainties, including the risk that that the Company may not file an appeal of the Hainan Higher People’s Court’s decision in the timeframe it expects or at all and the risk that the China’s Supreme People’s Court may elect not to hear an appeal of the Hainan Higher People’s Court’s decision. These and the important factors discussed in the “Risk Factors” section of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by forward-looking statements made herein and presented elsewhere by management from time to time. In addition, any forward-looking statements included in this report represent the Company’s expectations as of the date of this report. While the Company anticipates that subsequent events and developments may cause the Company’s views to change, the Company specifically disclaims any obligation to update these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Company’s views as of any date subsequent to the date of this report.
